Valley Of War

quiet silent
Only the sounds of nature.

The smel of
woodland and stream,
of rushes
sweet as a dream.

valley of heaven
Became a torturous hell.
fighting was bitter
many men fell.

For silence was shattered,
By rifle mortar grenade.
Messerschmitt bought terror,
with Death's serenade.

the British advanced
fighting moved northward
the only remains
Are graves

Again it is silent,
Only the sounds of nature.
